

Assemble the Parade on Lyon east of Monroe.
 11:00 am Start of Parade at corner of Monroe and Lyon
 Travel South on Monroe to Monroe Center.
 Travel South East on Monroe Center to Division.
 Travel South on Division to Fulton Ave.
 Travel East on Fulton to Park Street.
 Travel North on Park Street to Library Street.
 Travel West on Library Street to Bostwick Ave. Vehicles leave parade at this point
 Only Walkers travel North on Bostwick Ave. to Grand Rapids Community College Commons Area.
 There will be a Dignitary Ceremony with Irish Flag Raising at the GRCC Commons (ending approximately 12:15 pm)

Immediately following the parade will be a brief ceremony at Grand Rapids Community College Commons Area to feature the United States and Irish National Anthems, a prayer and a celebration of this year's Grand Marshal Roger Schlosser and the Spirit of Ireland, The Corrigan Family. There will be Irish Dancers and music.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians is encouraging people to make a day of it and enjoy all that downtown has to offer: shopping, dining and incredible museums and other attractions. The Order appreciates the sacrifice that the area merchants make to host events like our parade and want everyone to show their support for them. It is a great way to spend some quality family time and to get to know your city.

Grand Rapids Ancient Order of Hibernians